I will never take credit or give my own promise to pay notes, but will pay cash for all my goods when purchased. I will keep down my expenses, and will not pay high, enormously high rents, nor live above my income, and will deal fairly with all men. It is also equally true that with money, cash in hand, FOX—GEORGE P. FOX—has, during the past few months, made extensive purchases, at ruinously low prices, of fine CLOTHS, FASHIONABLE VESTINGS, CASSIMERES,

NEW YORK, May 8, 18: Bill for Injunction. In the Circuit Court in the District of Columbia, sitting in Chan-

Christopher Adams, complamant, James Guthrie,

Amos Adams,

Isaac N. Comstock. Defendants. Samuel Byington, and Richard Wallach, THIS bill of complaint in the above stated cause states, that the said complainant, on or about the twenty-fifth day of November, A. D., 1851, entered into a contract with the United States government agreeing to supply the government with five mil-lion of brick for the extension of the Capitol. That said complainant, on or about the 12th day of January, A. D. 1852, assigned to one Samuel Strong the said contract; the said Strong agreeing and promising to pay to said complainant the sum of our thousand dollars. The bill further states that the said Strong, on or about the 2d day of February, A. D. 1852, assigned the said contract, or one moiety thereof, to Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock, of the city of Albany and State of New York, and received from the said Adams and Comstock their obligation or promise for the payment of four thousand dollars, or thereabout, as well as a lien of thirty per cent. on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract, until the said sum of four thousand dollars should be paid; which lien said Strong duly assigned to the complainant in this bill. The bill further states that sometime in the year 1852 the said Amos Adams and Isaac N. Comstock assigned their right, title, and interest in the contract 22d, 1783; together with the names of the officers to one Samuel Byington as partner and associate to Richard Wallach, the said Byington and Wallach having notice of the said lien of thirty per cent. on the moneys to be paid by the government on said contract.

The object of said bill is to obtain an injunction against said defendants inhibiting the said James Guthrie, and all persons acting for him, from paying the said moneys to any of the defendants, or their representatives, and the defendants and their representatives from receiving the said moneys until the said moneys and the said moneys until the sum of thirty-six hundred dollars, and the interest thereon, should be paid to the complainant or his legal representa-tives, and such other and further decree as to this Albany as aforesaid, beyond the reach of the process of the court.

It is, therefore, by the court ordered this 1st day of January, A. D. 1855, that the matters and things stated in the aforesaid bill of complaint agrinst the defendants, shall be taken for con-fessed against the said Amos Adams and Isanc N. Comstock, and such decree made in the pre-mises against them, and each of them, as the court shall deem right, unless the said defendants appear in the court on or before the second Monday in May next, and answer the said bill, and show cause if any they have why a decree as prayed for by the complainant should not be nssed by the court.

Provided the complainant cause this order, and the substance and the object of the said bill of complaint, to be published in some newspaper in the city of Washington, twice a week for six successive weeks, the first insertion thereof to appear at least four months before the second Monday in May next. PECKERS' FARINA, prepared expressly for families, a delicate and apprepriate food for all seasons, and one of the most economical, nutritious, and wholesome preparations ever brought to the table, eminently combining the gratification of the palate with ampliand healthful sustenance of the body.

Strictly speaking, Heckers' Farina is neither stringent nor laxative, but restorative, strengenting the digestive and absorbent system. In disordered bowels, diarrhae, dysentery, and even in cases of cholera, when food is deemed admissible by the physicians, Heckers' Farina cannot fail to be salutary; and wherever known is extensively by the physicians, Heckers' Farina cannot fail to be salutary; and wherever known is extensively used in hospitals and private practice. The preservation of health or the prevention of sickness is at least as important as the curing of disease People in health should therefore use Heckers Farina freely, as common food, to preserve the in estimable blessing.
